"they profess such regard for the old frs., dead,

Hodge Lect on Trinity - we are to be content with facts in Scrip.

(1) One God.

5000 $ a year. Perhaps I sh^d go - if so may God who has thus far guided me, direct me thither. Told him to think of it. Said he w^d write me about it. It w^d be pleas^t to remain in my own land, but I sh^d sh^d be carri'd to where. O! God make the path of duty clear and fill me to walk in it diligently.

What this is, does all sin consist in vol. action? Footst. Kollacks placed to open.
Said, all are specific acts of will and this - not from affections are acts of will.

1. Bre. Sc. "Set-off aff. on this side", present not. to 4 cite aff., same as to 4 cite spec. acts of will.

2. The only not. to 4 cite aff. in others - to what apply notions unless to will?

3. Conscience aff. are under control, in same manner as specific volitions - differ in degree, not in kind - stronger & stronger habits.

Thus far sin finds place. Affec. are just acts of choice, under which single acts and specifics.

Now back of these are no dispositions known to actions.

it

3. Sc. does not address this, but "Set-off

Dr Hodge said Old Lat. Theod. defined -

He said if mind divided into ... directly & indirectly, no need to prove effect of the will, must be its acts: but not under its Control directly, or indirectly. Did not think my proofs conclusive for object is present only to draw out effect (this does not seem to overthrow the argt at all). Said, prop. objⁿ is of will - but neither an immediate cause of our Soul's existence, nor of acts which involve it - so of the social affection or disposⁿ we are not cause of it, but learn its exist.

In some doctrines my mind is unsettled.
But I can remain no longer in my least not cause others to err.

~~Windsor, July 14, 1846~~

Constitutional marriage? and whether it can be without adopting mod. Presby^{terian} Counts of review and Control?

The Cong^{regations} have surpassed all others, but it may be owing to nat. force of char., and to their Ch. order. It may be the w^{isdom} and y^{et} bound more closely together. In Mult. of counsellors is wisdom, and the ultra course of some Cong. Ch. in N. Y. shows that some hold back is needed.

The Gath^{ing} at Jones. may not have been a Synod, or Council, or Convention, organized as such bodies are now y^{et} fact, but was it not the Collected (wisdom) wise men of the Churches, and to all intents a court of appeal.

Then as to discipline of members, is it right to bring cases of scandal & charges of adultery before the Bro^{therhood}, giving up all of about women being part of the Court, are there not many male members who are unfit for such duties?
Should any but the fittest have the hands of such matters. No! I love Cong^{regations}, I think not. Whulst case in Col. for inst.

ought from means to have come before the Ch, or any Ch in the land. (copying in 1856, twelve years after, the case in Ch. at Comitt. seems to resist all my objections).

D^r M. gave me broad hint about coming late to lecture, which I mean to improve upon. He is a dragood old gentleman. When he does a thing he does it up - tho at times rather prolix, yet he is complete. In his feelings most faithful.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document. The text is written in a dark ink on a light-colored paper. The handwriting is fluid and continuous, with many words and phrases that are difficult to decipher due to the cursive style. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs, with some lines starting with capital letters. The overall appearance is that of a historical document or a personal letter.
